

ENGLISH AUTHOR'S SANE WARNING TO COUNTRYMEN

Peace Must Be Without Hate Declares Jerome K. Jerome Who Says German Ideas Have to be Conquered—Predicts War Will End in One of Three Ways.

"Ten years after peace is signed—and every schoolboy knows it—no shall be buying from Germany, selling to Germany. In twenty years we shall be playing tennis with them and teaching them golf."—Jerome K. Jerome.

The International News Service, through its exclusive news sources, today received from London the following statement by Jerome K. Jerome, the world's most famous humorous philosopher. Unlike Father Bernard Vaughan who last week in an exclusive statement to the International News Service, urged a war to the end, Mr. Jerome warns England that she must stifle her hatred for Germany. He urges a "peace without hate."

(By Jerome K. Jerome.) Copyright, 1916, by the International News Service.

Before we glibly denounce Germany we must be sure that we have got rid of the Hun in ourselves. This glamour of every act of brutality that Germany invents—what is it but the response of Hun to Hun? It does not come from the soldiers. It comes from our comfortable stay-at-homes.

We call for vengeance on submarine crews, leaving our soldiers to pay the penalty. What benefit have we gained by obediently imitating Germany's use of poisoned gases? God's winds are neutral.

There are those who would have us retaliate for the Lusitania by sinking German merchant ships without warning. Our sailors refused to do the dirty work at the bidding of our journalists.

We do well and better to play the game according to English ideals not German. We are not merely to conquer the German people. We are out to conquer German ideas. The German ideas that might be right that there is no law above the sword.

One might, in speaking of fellow-Christians, be excused for suggesting that hate is an evil thing in itself.

History has proved that it is something worse. It is a folly and a blunder. It is not a good business proposition.

How long ago was it that Lloyd George had to disguise himself as a policeman to escape from a Birmingham mob? He is now the idol of the Carleton Club. We are fighting side by side with France, Russia, and our lion comrade, Greece, who never have Constantinople, is now our heroic ally. We have poured out our blood in Gallipoli, to open for her the Dardanelles.

"I am going to venture on a prophecy. I predict this war will be ended in one of three ways:

In a complete and crushing victory for Germany. In that event I am afraid I shall go down to my grave hating Germany. It may be unreasonable, unphilosophical, but I shall not be able to help it. Hatred is the child of impotence and fear. Unable to do anything against Germany, ever fearful of what Germany may choose to do to us, we shall all of us hate her. Or instead of a crushing victory for Germany the war may end in a crushing victory for the Allies. Germany and Austria broken up and divided into separate states, something after the plan devised and for a time achieved by Napoleon. The Kaiser either hanged on a lamp post in the Unter den Linden, or imprisoned in St. Helena. In that event there will be hardly any need to waste much hatred on her.

Or it may end in Germany being driven back to her borders of 1870 and there left to fashion herself anew.

"Never again" is fool's talk. One hears it after every railway accident, after every shipwreck, after every war that has ever been waged.

Europe will emerge from this war, and the map, unless looked at very closely, will have much the same appearance that it had before.

There may be one color for Poland instead of three. Alsace and Lorraine will have returned to France, and that one last corner still soiled by Turkish rule may, one hopes, have been cleaned out. The main features will remain. Germany, bruised and battered, her arrogance and her bombast knocked out of her, but still alive and vigorous, will set to work to build herself anew.

Ten years after peace is signed—every school boy knows it—we shall be buying from Germany, selling to Germany.

In twenty years we shall be playing tennis with them and teaching them golf, and thirty years later it is quite possible they in turn may be our allies.

This song of hate does not suit the English voice. Our soldiers must learn to do it; the only manly thing to do. Hatred during wartime may be necessary to a few poor creatures incapable of fighting for their country. But now that the end of the contest is coming into sight, it will be well to get rid of it. There is, we are told, "a time to love and a time to hate; a time of war and a time of peace."

It will be well when we lay aside the sword to be prepared to lay aside our hate. It may in some quarters be considered bad taste. But in this matter I would personally rather listen to the voice of Miss Cavell than to the most strident speakers of the anti-German League. Edith Cavell did a fine thing when she laid down her life for her country. There are many who do that. Poor, feeble, evil men and women have done that. Hundreds of our nameless lads do it every day. The finest thing she did, not only for her country, but for the men and women of our lands, was when she put aside all hatred, and all bitterness.

"Standing as I do in view of God and Eternity, I realize that patriotism is not enough. I must have no hatred or bitterness towards anyone."

"We, too, are standing before God and Eternity, and His judgment is awaiting us."

"For us, too, patriotism is not enough. Our victory must be not only over the Germans, but over ourselves. We must have no hatred, no bitterness."

"By no other means will peace be conclusively conclusive."

"We call for vengeance on submarine crews, leaving our soldiers to pay the penalty. What benefit have we gained by obediently imitating Germany's use of poisoned gases? God's winds are neutral."

There are those who would have us retaliate for the Lusitania by sinking German merchant ships without warning. Our sailors refused to do the dirty work at the bidding of our journalists.

A SPLENDID RECORD BY N. Y. DIVISION

Major Chandler Range Officer in Charge of Combat Firing at La Gloria Where Novel Problems Are Being Worked Out by Militiamen—Some Interesting Tests.

Rifle practice differing radically from anything hitherto attempted by either the national guard or regular army is being tried out by New York state guardsmen on the Mexican border where Major George Chandler, adjutant of the First Brigade, has been given authority by the division commander to work out any ideas of his own. Combat problems as originated by him call for targets built to represent groups of men and were constructed in trenches in which they were made movable, disappearing in one place and reappearing in another. La Gloria, where these problems are being tried out, means Heaven but the Kings-ton military authority mentioned declares it quite the opposite, being nothing but a desert, all sand and cactus and a few mesquite trees. For more than six weeks Major Chandler has been stationed there, more than 5,000 soldiers coming there 400 at a time to shoot under his instruction. Following is the account of the work on the La Gloria field ranges as taken from the Rio Grande Rattler:

With the completion of the combat firing problem at La Gloria, by the First and Second Brigades of Infantry, a record has been established of which the whole New York Division should be proud. Never before in this country has a combat problem of the size of this one been accomplished either in respect to the number of men who have shot over the range (about 5,000) or the amount of ammunition used totaling approximately 200,000 rounds.

The rifle range was designed by Major Fred M. Waterbury, Division Ordnance Officer, and was built by the 22nd New York Engineers. The Range Officer is Major George Chandler, adjutant of the First Brigade and Lieut. Percy E. Barbour of the 22nd Engineers is assistant Range Officer.

The First and Second Brigades of Infantry have fired the problem, each man using forty rounds of ammunition. The troops which are going from Canada to Europe have only forty-five rounds per man shooting before going into action on the big battle line.

All the troops concede that the La Gloria problem is one of the most interesting yet given to the guard in its border service.

The problem as worked out by the range officer constitutes an advance guard action. A company is taken to the foot of the range in advance guard formation and is suddenly fired on by the point of the enemy. They are actually fired on by blank ammunition. The point advances and using service ammunition, ball cartridges, fires at the probe targets showing, of which there are four.

Having driven these back and having been reinforced, an advance is made against sixteen targets that have appeared further along the range. After having subdued these, an advance is made against twenty targets coming up farther back representing the support.

Each company commander handles his company as he chooses, except that he is not allowed to advance unless, or until, he has fire superiority.

After this last set of targets, 100 yards of chaparral is cautiously passed through, and the line deployed on its edge to encounter the main body of the enemy seen in a line of sixty-four targets at the end of a clearing about 250 yards long.

All ranges are unknown, and the targets are operated from a high switchboard at the end of the range.

After the firing, the company is taken up to the last row of targets to observe results and then some very interesting visibility stunts are worked out by the range officers.

One platoon at each end of the last cleared range kneels, lies down in the firing position and then, removing hats and laying down rifles, hugs the ground and literally melts into the landscape. This always brings a gasp of surprise from the observers; the surprise at the unexpected and almost total cover afforded by a flat, open field.

Then a demonstration of a patrol crossing a road brings further surprises. A man rolls slowly across and almost always accomplishes the trip without detection; whereas the patrol dashing across is always detected. Then the observing company is informed by the range officer that it is being watched by an observer in plain sight on the edge of the chaparral and they are asked to spot him. But his absolute immobility makes him very hard to find and it is generally not until he moves, on signal, that his position is detected.

The range is run by a detachment from "E" Company, 22nd Engineers in command of Lieut. Percy E. Barbour. A detail of the First Battalion Signal Corps attends to the telephone and buzzer communications and is a very efficient unit.

Lieut. Willis Linn of the 2nd Ambulance Corps is in command of a detail assigned to the range and has a dressing station to attend to any casualties which fortunately have not yet happened, and he is also sanitary inspector of the camp and range.

A battalion of infantry arrives early in the morning, shoots that day and the next, and departs the second evening. Despite rainy weather, or any other vicissitude, these troops have been moving on this schedule for nearly two months without hitch; arriving, shooting and departing on regular schedule.

An interesting, and it is to be hoped, valuable test of the comparative merits of point blank and battlesight has been made by the range officers. All the problem firing is being done using point blank sight. Almost without exception (and that only to the extent of a decimal figure) the battle sight has fallen down compared to point blank sight. This supports the contention of Major Chandler, and many other expert riflemen, that for battle conditions as they are to be in the future the old battle sight must give way to a better one, which is not at all difficult to devise.

A formula was evolved to cover the problem at La Gloria in which dispersion of fire is an effective factor and the work done by each company is similarly computed and will be published after the shooting is completed.

Up to the last battalion of the last brigade the 7th Regiment was leading with a high score, but the 3rd Tennessee shot a tie score, followed by the 74th, 23rd, 69th and 12th Regiments in the order named. The last cavalry is now shooting and from present indications will make an excellent figure.

COUNTY TAX TABLE NEARS COMPLETION

The equalization committee of the board of supervisors reported Monday night the amounts deducted from the assessed value of the real property of the towns or added to such assessed value, according to the table of ratios adopted last week, together with the totals, etc.

HOW MR. EVERETT ACQUIRED A JAG

His Traveling Companions Had Some Whiskey Bottles and Passed the Time by Passing the Bottles With Sad Results.

Edward Everett, 28 years old, was picked up at the West Shore station on Monday by Policeman Walker as Mr. Everett was helplessly drunk, and the lockup was thought the safest place for him until he had sobered up. This morning Mr. Everett was arraigned before Recorder Lang and explained how he happened to fall off the water cart.

According to Mr. Everett's story he was employed at state road work near Cossackie and that job being completed he and his companions were on their way to Rosendale to take up another job on the state road. On the way from Cossackie to Kingston Monday his traveling companions found time hanging heavy on their hands and as they had some filled whiskey bottles they began passing the bottles to pass the time. Every time the bottle came Mr. Everett's way he took a nip, and gradually the nips became so frequent that by the time the crowd got off at Kingston and were waiting for the Wallkill Valley train they all were unsteady on their feet and found it necessary to lean against the building in order to stand straight. Mr. Everett, however, was too far gone to even stand up, and he laid down near the railroad track.

His companions were too busy looking out for themselves to notice what Mr. Everett was doing, and to avoid a possible accident, Officer Walker decided that it would be safer for Everett to look him up.

"I have been drunk but once before," said Mr. Everett to the recorder, "and I find that whiskey ain't good for me."

As Mr. Everett had a job waiting for him and was perfectly sober Recorder Lang gave him another chance and discharged him with the advice that he hurry on to Rosendale.

MAJOR GEORGE CHANDLER, U. S. N. G. HOLDING HIS PET SNAKE, "RANGER."

This snake is of a harmless variety of reptile which kills rattlers. At La Gloria, this particular snake lived for four weeks in a box in front of the Major's tent and would come in answer to the Major's whistle. The snake was badly frightened one day by a dog and at night he left for parts unknown. That is the story as it comes from La Gloria and the Snake Editor of The Freeman is much interested in the tale of this pet which responded to a soldier's whistle in such an arid climate where even the irrigating of such a snake is forbidden. The Snake Editor's theory of the disappearance of the snake is that the reptile came across a copy of The Freeman in which William S. Ellinger's drug store was conspicuously featured as a meeting place for rattlers. It is believed that the Major's pet headed north instantly and all points on the snake's winding of the route taken by militia trains will be watched for news of "Ranger."

BIG SANITARIUM CAMPAIGN IS ON; TEN TEAMS BUSY

Enthusiastic Meeting of Workers in Knights of Columbus Home Marked by Announcement of Captains and Stirring Speeches—Clock Already to Tick Receipts.

Captain Everett Fowler presided Monday evening over by far the largest meeting of campaigners yet held. The particular work of the meeting was the assignment to teams of various workers. The team captains were announced as follows: Dr. O'Meara, Dr. Levitas, Mr. Murphy, Mr. Messinger, Miss Hoxsey, Miss Farrell, Mrs. Melnhardt, Dr. Day, Mrs. Leary, Miss Madden. The drawing of the cards for the first day's work was completed. Manager Converse warned the workers as to trying to make pledges for others and putting in cards not signed by the donors themselves, in other words he said once in a while they would get the promise without the signed pledge and enter it into the report. This should not be done as the treasurer could not accept any pledges that were not properly signed.

The auditing committee, whose business it is to go over the pledges and the accounts of the campaign named as follows: John B. Kearney, Charles O'Connor and Samuel Stern. One of the features of the meeting was the large team of nurses, both graduates and under graduates, from the Sanitarium.

A large clock has been placed on the front of the headquarters and will begin tonight to tick away the daily amounts brought in by the campaigners.

A committee was named, headed by N. D. J. Murphy, to look after suburban places which will take up their canvass today and all the villages adjacent to Kingston whose hospital services naturally would come to this city will be included in the visitations of this committee, the object being to form local committees who shall canvass villages in the interest of the sanitarium.

Seventh Regiment Is Home.

By Telegraph to The Freeman. New York, Nov. 28.—After spending five months on the border, the Seventh Regiment, New York Militia, returned home today. Pennsylvania Station was thronged with wives, sweethearts and friends of the returning soldiers. One thousand and seventy-three men comprised the force, under the command of Col. Willard C. Fiske.

GERMANS NEARING RUMANIAN CAPITAL

By Telegraph to The Freeman. Berlin, via Sayville Wireless, Nov. 28.—The German allies are now only thirty-five miles from Bucharest, the Rumanian capital.

Official announcement was made today of the capture of Giurgio, which is directly south of Bucharest and only 35 miles away. Giurgio is on the Danube and lies at the terminus of a short railway line running into the capital of King Ferdinand's kingdom.

Kurten Arjesh, an important railway town in north Rumania, is also in the hands of the Austro-German forces. This town is not far from Campolung, one of the chief objectives of the army of General von Falkenhayn.

More crossings of the Alt river have been gained by the Teuton allies.

Under the powerful blows of the Germans, Austro-Hungarians and Bulgarians the defense of the Russo-Rumanian forces is crumbling to pieces all around Bucharest.

CENTRAL REFUSES ACCESS TO COSTS

U. and D. Railroad Willing to Permit Physical Examination of Property if West Shore Figures Are Made Available in latter's City Tax Fight.

The case of The People on the relation of the New York Central Railroad Company against Morris Block, Assessor of the City of Kingston, to review the assessment of the New York Central and West Shore Railroad property in this city, came up before the Hon. George McClellan of Chatham, the referee, at the city hall on Monday. Judge Clearwater, who appeared for the Ulster and Delaware, which recently was granted permission by Judge Hasbrouck to intervene in the proceeding, stated that he had been requested by Amos Van Etten, counsel for the Central, to permit the Central's experts to make a physical examination of the Ulster and Delaware properties in this city, which he was willing to do provided the Central would permit the Ulster and Delaware to send its engineers to make a physical examination of the Central's property. To this Mr. Van Etten agreed.

The judge said that as the Ulster and Delaware had thrown open its books for examination by the accountants of the Central, and had turned over its map to Mr. Van Etten, he wished permission for the Ulster and Delaware to send its accountants and experts to the Central offices in New York to examine the books and maps of the Central relative to the cost of the construction of the West Shore road and system in this city, including the bridge over the Rondout creek. To this Mr. Van Etten objected, and said he had no authority to consent to that being done. Judge Clearwater said very well, as that request was declined the Ulster and Delaware would issue a subpoena duces tecum, and enforce the attendance of the Central officials with the books and maps.

The question of going on with the case pending the appeal taken by the Central from Judge Hasbrouck's order was then discussed, and on the suggestion of Mr. McClellan, to which all the counsel consented, it was agreed to suspend hearings until the hearing and determination of that appeal.

Corporation Counsel Brinnier, who was present and represented the city, said it was a matter of indifference to him whether the case proceeded or not, although he thought it better to wait as in event it did proceed and the order of Judge Hasbrouck was reversed, much of the testimony introduced would have to be stricken from the record.

The reports of each committee were placed on file.

In addition to the above, $21,173.82 must be raised for the construction of state and county highways, as reported by committee on town and county accounts printed elsewhere in the Freeman.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

The funeral of the late George Diehl of Saugerties, who met with an accidental death at West New York, N. J., on Friday night, was held this afternoon from his late residence on the South Side. Rev. F. M. Turrentine, of the M. E. Church, officiated. The interment was in Mountain View Cemetery.

Mrs. Will S. Myer died yesterday afternoon at her home on Lafayette street, Saugerties. She had been in failing health for several weeks. Her death was unexpected. Mrs. Myer was actively identified with the social affairs of the Reformed Church and will be greatly missed there and by many friends. She is survived by her husband, Will S. Myer, of the Saugerties Manufacturing Co.

$90,000 FOR ROAD WORK IN 1917

The expenditure of more than $90,000 on Ulster county roads and bridges, road machinery, snow removal and miscellaneous highway expenses will give Ulster county next year the best roads that ever have been given to the county.

Appropriations recommended by the board of supervisors Monday night by the committee on town expenses aggregate $85,717, as compared with $82,673 raised last year, and appropriations for maintenance amount to $7,500 under recommendation of the committee on town and county accounts, which amounts are required to be raised under the highway law, based on the mileage of state and county highways in each town, compared with $6,850 raised for that purpose last year.

This year's total is $93,217; last year's total was $89,523.

The estimates of amounts to be raised on the various towns for highway purposes as provided by sections 90 and 91 of the highway law, are prepared and are submitted to the town boards, which have the right to approve or change them, and in turn submit such estimates to the board of supervisors. The estimates were submitted last week and referred to the committee on town expenses, which made its report Monday night.

The amounts in the first column are for highway maintenance; those in the second column are for maintenance and repair of bridges; those in the third column are for town machinery for roads in the town; and those in the fourth column are for miscellaneous expenses, including snow removal.

In towns having an incorporated village, the amounts are to be raised on the town outside the village. The amounts for the towns are as follows:

Town	Highway Maintenance	Bridges	Town Machinery	Miscellaneous
Denning	$1,000	$0	$25	$25
Esopus	4,000	200	200	200
Gardiner	1,000	100	100	100

Woodstock	2,500	800	100	200
Total	$52,487	$12,950	$4,280	$4,300

Total—$85,717.

In addition to the foregoing the committee reported it will be necessary to raise the following amounts for principal and interest in payment of certificates of indebtedness for expenses for extraordinary reports:

	Principal	Interest
Denning	$300	$10.30
Rochester	1,000	18.00
Shandaken	400	8.00

Amounts Required by Highway Law. The committee on town and county accounts reported the amounts necessary to be raised on the towns for maintenance of state and county highways, totalling $7,500, which was reported by the state highway commission last week, as follows:

Town	Amount
Esopus	$800
Gardiner	300
Hurley	100
Kingston	50
Lloyd	600
Marbletown	400
Marlborough	250

FOOTBALL GAME ON THANKSGIVING

High School Players of Bygone Days Will Meet the High School Team on the Gridiron.

Kingston is not to be deprived of its annual Thanksgiving football game. "Dutch" Schirick and ten other footballers of bygone days, graduates of Kingston and Ulster Academies, whose life of ease behind the scenes has not entirely cooled the old fall football blood of their school days, have resolved that their excess width admissions will not prevent their mixing it up with the year's high school team in a regular old fashioned gridiron tussle at the Athletic Field Thursday afternoon.

The action of the board of health in prohibiting the high school from having a team on account of the paralysis scare left Kingston without football as a diversion. Therefore the 1915 team, all but one of whose regulars are still in the city, challenged all the high schools in this vicinity, to which they received not even the signs of an acceptance. Within the past few days the "old boys" conceived the idea of bucking up against the youngsters to give them a taste of genuine gridiron battle, stripped of the scientific ping pong qualities so prevalent on present-day football fields. Last year's champs were glad to accept and started practice this afternoon.

Left Guard Bernstein is the only missing man from the youngsters and his place will be filled with one of last year's subs. The others who will once more squirm into the cast-off football togs, are: Joyce, left end; Gill, left tackle; Hallinan, center; Macavley, right guard; Palisi, right tackle; Johnson, right end; Gregor, quarterback; Pfelemaun, left halfback; Captain Wheeler, fullback; Terwilliger, right halfback. On the reserve list will be Sullivan, Hasbrouck and Riseley.

The veterans have had such a short time to go over the football family album that they have not yet lined up their hopefuls. There is choice material to choose from, however, and it will be a difficult task to weed down the applicants for positions. By Wednesday evening they will have made their selections. It is known that the outstanding efficiency of "Dutch" Schirick, quarterback at K. A. some ten or fifteen years ago, "Chink" Rowland, an old time Ulster point man, Chris Flanagan, one of the greatest ends ever running down the line at Ulster under Matty Deegan, and half-backing K. A. half-back and Sam Bernstein a substantial line-man, will warrant them jobs on the has-been's battering ram.

With this rabid football town there is little doubt that a big crowd of fans will turn out. Perhaps they will come to see last year's eastern New York champs in action once again, with their meteoric speed and wide assortment of stirring plays; they may be attracted for sentimental reasons, once again witnessing their most-favored sport; but the strongest magnet is the sociability of the crowd which is always in attendance at these Turkey Day events. College boys will meet one another behind the side lines while their sisters, budding out in all their hibernal attire, will look on, gasp, and emit a faint feminine squeak whenever she feels compelled to do so because of her voracious environment. It's the one big day of autumn for young blood. Twelve hundred gathered at the 1915 game between Mechanicville and Kingston and with a pent-up desire to see one this year, prevalent in nearly as great a number this season, the French en masse would be a good descriptive phrase to use picturing the turnout Thursday. The shrill note of the whistle will be sounded at 2:30 and admission will be the usual twenty-five cents. Probably Ray Thompson and Carl Preston will officiate.

VILLA PURSUES CARRANZA ARMY

By Telegram to The Freeman.

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 28.—General Trevino, commander in chief of the Carranza forces at Chihuahua City, is fleeing toward the Mexican border town of Ojinaga with his entire staff of officers, defeated in a five day battle by Pancho Villa, according to a special agent's report to General Funston at noon today.

The entire Carranza garrison at Chihuahua is in flight toward the border, these advisers said. They are being hotly pursued by Villa's cavalry.

This information reached General Funston an hour after he received word by way of a courier to Ojinaga that Chihuahua City had been captured by Villa.

Ojinaga is a Mexican stronghold, commanded by Rojas, opposite Presidio, Texas. If Trevino is retreating in that direction it accounts for the fact that army couriers have been receiving their information by that route.

SOCIETY NOTES.

A very delightful surprise was given to Mrs. Henry Hart of Ruby on Sunday when a number of young folks of Kingston spent the day there. Among those present were the Misses Anna Wrenn, Beatrice Smith, Evelyn Short, Mary Williams, Francis Gruberg, Harriet Lankisky, Deborah Lankisky, Martha Sulzer, Bertha Sulzer, Anna Wolfersheim, Frances Hart and the Messrs. John Schrader and William Hart.

Miss Naomi Barnhardt, whose engagement was recently announced, was given a linen shower at her home on O'Neil street Monday evening by a number of friends. Victrola selections were enjoyed. After delicious refreshments had been served, the bride-to-be was presented with a number of pretty and useful articles of linen. As the guests departed they wished Miss Barnhardt much happiness in her married life.

Miss Gertrude Wilson entertained a large number of friends at her home on Chambers street Friday evening. Dancing and games were enjoyed by all present, and dainty refreshments were served. At a late hour the guests departed vowing Miss Wilson a delightful entertainer. Those present were the Misses Emma Marks, Ada Orille, Gertrude Wilson, Margaret Dittus, Bertha Roenn, Esther Houghtaling, Marie Geuss, Kathryn Genter, Martha Silzawski and Louise Duranski, and the Messrs. Huber, George Hamburg, John Hamburg, Edward Fox, Raymond Rundel, Charles Baxter, George Geuss, Chris Orille, Robert Brize, Gerald Perry, Frank Orille, Fred Roenn and John Genter.

Staerker-Orndracc. William Staerker and Marie Orndracc, both of Ruby, were united by the Rev. George T. Heintz at the Lutheran parsonage, Saugerties, November 23rd.

Monday Club.

The Monday Club met this week at the home of Miss Forsyth on Pearl street. Mrs. Forsyth had the paper for the day, her subject being "Housing of the Masses." The club will meet next Monday with Mrs. DeWitt Roosa.

Schneider-Brown. A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Brown on Lafayette street, Saugerties, Monday evening at 8 o'clock when their eldest daughter, Dorothy, was united in marriage to Frederick Schneider by the Rev. Francis M. Turretine. The bride was handsomely gowned in white satin and the groom in the conventional black. The maid of honor was Miss Ada Lewis of Elm street, who was gowned in pink satin. Little Miss Lucille Brown, a sister of the bride, was the flower girl. Philip Schneider, a brother of the groom, was the best man. After a wedding dinner the bride and groom left on an extended wedding tour. On their return they will reside in the McKeeffrey house on Lafayette street.

Traver-Randall.

Mt. Tremper, Nov. 28.—A very quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Randall on Wednesday, the 22nd, when their daughter, Freida, was married to Clarence Traver of Kingston, N. Y. The Rev. R. G. Ingersoll, a cousin of the bride performed the ceremony in the presence of only the immediate members of the family.

Mrs. Ingersoll played the wedding march from Lehergrin and during the ceremony "O Promise Me." The bride looked charming in her traveling suit and carried bride's roses. Her sister, Miss Letta Randall, was maid of honor and a brother, Montanye Randall, was best man. The house was prettily decorated with numerous hot house flowers, the gifts of friends of the bride. After the ceremony, which was at 11 o'clock, a luncheon was served and the happy couple left for Kingston by auto, and from there on the West Shore R. R. for a wedding journey. After their return they will reside at Rhinebeck, N. Y.

Farley-Selfridge.

At 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon a very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Mary's Church, where Miss Ellen V. Selfridge of Hone street, was united in marriage to Cornelius Vincent Farley of New Brunswick, N. J. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dean McKee. The bride was charmingly attired in a dark blue coat-suit with a large picture hat to match. She wore chrysanthemums. She was attended by Miss Gertrude C. Radol as bridesmaid, who was also charmingly attired in a dark brown coat suit with large picture hat to match. She also wore chrysanthemums. Edward Gillen acted as best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. The house was handsomely decorated with white and yellow

KINGSTON, N. Y., NOV. 28, 1916.

Edward Hatch, Jr., a chairman of some committee or other of the Merchants' Association in New York, has written a letter to the mayors of all the municipalities along the Hudson River to learn what steps are being taken to decrease river pollution. If the executives thus addressed answer truthfully they will inform their metropolitan inquisitor that they are doing all within their respective powers to increase the quantity of sewage through the securing of new industries and expanding the population whenever possible. The object of Mr. Hatch's solicitude is the revival of the shad fisheries, which he believes can be restored to their former importance once the river is cleaned out and kept clean. A natural query would be as to the extent of New York's possible co-operation with the plan in order to clear the lower river, the bay and the Sound of pollution, similar to although far greater than that now noticed along the Hudson. It is likely that the municipal indebtedness of all these cities is such as to preclude any consideration of sewage disposal plants, even though the cost of such structures is largely lightened by the revenue from their by-products. The State has legislated against cities sewerage into the large canal, but there are few along its banks which do not use that waterway for drainage. It is a big problem all over the land. Some day the treatment of all sewage run into public watercourses is going to be imperative and casual inquiries such as that from Mr. Hatch show the way the wind is blowing. At present, however, the agitation scarcely makes a dent in the civic lethargy reinforced by the knowledge that the bonded indebtedness is as high as the traffic will bear or the taxpayers can stand.

Only recently a citizen of Toronto, carried away by an excess of this feeling, made a stirring appeal in the Dominion press to abolish the name of Santa Claus on the ground that it was of German origin. Such animosity is only equalled by the exhibition of ignorance it gives. Santa Claus is but the English corruption of Saint Nicholas or Klaus as taken from the Dutch. It stands in our language today in the same anomalous position as do many geographical names where the English attempt to render something like the original Dutch name has resulted in numerous peculiarities. As for Santa Claus, no matter what our insular-minded Canadian correspondent thinks, he is a strictly neutral institution. In reality, Saint Nicholas is more Russian than anything else, as that country made him its patron saint after long labors credited to him in Asia Minor. He is also known as the patron saint of seafaring men, thieves, virgins and children but it is to the last-named that his patronage is most conspicuously given in these modern times. In fact so firmly established is Santa Claus that such ravings as that quoted only serve to show the extremes to which war hate will carry otherwise well-meaning people. Santa Claus will stick for centuries after critics of this character are dead and forgotten.

Safety first is now the most valuable bit of shop jargon in the country. This little phrase of two words has also done much for pedestrians and workers out of doors, where its benefits have been legion. The brain that conceived the idea and the gray matter exercised in making the words universal in their application through sane publicity methods scored a great success. They combined to do one of the most difficult things known. They made people think. The fruits of this industrial evangelistic campaign for the prevention of accidents are seen in the greatly lessened lists of casualties in our greater industries, in the exercise of care where formerly carelessness was the rule and an assumption of responsibility on the part of individuals for the reducing of chances for accidents. One of the recent movements in line with the Safety First idea is that originating in the State Labor Department at Albany, under whose patronage the first New York State Industrial Safety Congress will be held in Syracuse for four days next month. Safe-guarding of machinery, elimination of dangerous conditions in buildings occupied by workers and the dividends that such precautions pay through accident prevention are some of the educational features on a program of exceptional interest to factories and all establishments where machinery is used. In these days the worker has become the most important factor in the great scheme of production and the indifference once often displayed on matters affecting his welfare is seldom to be met with in any modern business carried on with any pretense to a progressive policy.

COUNTY FARM SELLS $1,714.72 WORTH

The annual report of Superintendent of the Poor Cornelius L. Van Orden, submitted to the board of supervisors at Monday night's session, shows the work carried on at the county poor house at New Paltz during the past year.

Produce Sales of Over $1,700.

The financial statement showed a balance on hand on November 1, 1915, of $7,771.14, and sales of produce from the county poor farm amounting to $1,714.72. During the year bills were paid by Superintendent Van Orden amounting to $17,663.72. The amount raised by appropriation was $14,308.40 with an extra appropriation of $1,000 for the Industrial Home, and the balance on hand November 1, 1916, was $7,130.54.

The number of inmates in the institution on November 1, 1915, was 84; the number received during the year was 81; the number discharged during the year was 57; absconded, 14; died, 16; in the institution on November 1, 1916, 78.

The number of days' board furnished at the institution charged to the towns was 27,554, and the number of days' board charged to the county was 2,068.

Low Cost of Maintenance Per Capita.

The cost of maintenance for the towns was $9.389.49, and the cost of maintenance per capita was $4.44 cents.

Expense to Towns.

The expense of the town poor was estimated and apportioned for the ensuing year as follows:

Denning	$.00
Esopus	1,120.22
Gardiner	250.03
Hartford	172.62
Hurley	205.10
Kingston00
Lloyd	463.40
Marbletown	124.54
Marlborough	329.70
New Paltz	638.76
Olive	315.78
Pittsford	131.18
Rochester	270.58
Rosendale	907.62
Saugerties	1,652.23
Shandaken	542.86
Shawangunk	32.40
Ulster	438.40
Wawarsing	1,077.16
Woodstock	375.94

Total $9,437.22
It will be necessary to raise on the county outside the city for the ensuing year for salaries, etc., $4,120.

Bills paid to the Industrial Home during the year amounted to $1,674.11, leaving a balance of $488.92 to that appropriation.

Big Crops Raised.

Crops raised on the farm included:

165 bushels of rye, 472 bushels of oats, 100 bushels of wheat, 100 tons of hay, 8 tons of rye straw, 450 bushels of potatoes, 8 acres of field corn, 187 acres of ensilage corn, 1,500 head of cabbage, besides quantities of beets, carrots, sweet corn, beans, peas and other garden produce; strawberries, grapes, apples, pears and other small fruit.

Stock raised on the farm included 3 calves, 30 hogs fattened, weighing about 250 pounds dressed; 150 chickens.

Hospital Building Needed.

Improvements made included new fence around the reservoir property, men's and women's buildings painted inside, outside porches on all buildings painted, roofs on all buildings painted.

Superintendent Van Orden again asked for a detached hospital building, recommending it be built as soon as possible. The sick have to be cared for in rooms not suited for the purpose and this leaves the men's building in a crowded condition.

TWENTY AND TEN YEARS AGO.

Lunolatry in China.
In China the practice of lunolatry exists at the present day and is of very early origin. The chief festival, that of Yueping, or moon cakes, is held during the eighth month of the Chinese year. Persons make cakes of various sizes in the shape of the moon and paint different figures upon them. Friends and relatives pay visits to one another, give entertainments and present their cakes after making protestations and pouring out oblations to the moon.

The Cabal.
The term "cabal" as applied to secret factions of any kind had its rise in England about 1600, being first applied to the cabinet of Charles II. and formed from the initials of the cabinet members' names—Lord Clifford, Lord Ashley, the Duke of Buckingham, Lord Arlington and the Duke of Lauderdale—C. A. B. A. L. Since that day it has been customary, in all English speaking lands at least, to apply the name to any secret clique, especially in politics. — Westminster Gazette.

Changed His Mind.
"Henry, suppose we call on the new people who have moved in next door." "Oh, I won't care about meeting them." "But when their furniture was being carried in I noticed an unusually large and handsome cellaret." "Ahem! Well, we might drop in for a few minutes, anyway."

Daily Thought.
We might enjoy to their utmost many things that we now spurn by the selfish craze for possession. Why should the velvet lawn and strip of woodland cease to be a pleasure and become a source of jealousy and heartache because it is our neighbor's?—Anon.

RYZON Rice Popovers

2 level tablespoons RYZON; 2 cups (½ pound) flour; 2 eggs; 2 cups (1 pint) cold boiled rice; 2 level tablespoons (1 oz.) sugar; 2 cups (1 pint) milk; 1 level teaspoonful salt.

Mash rice until smooth. Beat four eggs, salt and RYZON together twice. Beat up yolks of eggs, add milk, sugar and flour alternately and beat until smooth. Have your pans greased and a little flour stirred into each. Fill each two-thirds full with the mixture and bake in a hot oven for fifteen minutes. Serve hot with butter or maple syrup. Sufficient for twenty popovers.

one plus tone control

You would not get much pleasure out of a piano that could only be played when the loud pedal was down; and there would be no satisfaction in playing it with the soft pedal nailed down all the time, either.

In the same way there is not much pleasure owning a "talking-machine" with a fixed volume of tone. Tone control is just as necessary to enjoyment as tone-quality.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 28.—

To determine as far as possible the exact dollars and cents effect on a county of the improvement of bad roads, specialists of the Office of Public Roads and Rural Engineering of the U. S. Department of Agriculture made economic surveys in 8 counties in each of the years from 1910 to 1915, inclusive.

This study of the increase in the value of farm lands in the eight counties reveals the rather interesting fact that following the improvement of the main market roads the increase in the selling price of tillable farm lands served by the roads has amounted to from one to three times the total cost of improvements. The increase in values in those instances which were recorded ranged from 63 per cent to 84 per cent in Spotsylvania county, Va.; from 68 to 194 in Dinwiddie county, Va.; 70 to 80 in Lee county, Va.; 25 to 100 in Wise county, Va.; 9 to 114 in Franklin county, N. Y.; 50 to 100 in Dallas county, Ala.; 25 to 50 in Lauderdale county, Miss.; and from 50 to 100 in Manatee county, Fla. The estimates of increase were based for the most part upon the territory within a distance of one mile on each side of the roads improved.

In Spotsylvania county a careful record was made in 1910 of 35 farms located on the road selected for improvement. Of the seven farms sold in 1912, the prices actually paid show increases of from 37 to 116 per cent over the 1910 valuation. The average value after the roads were improved was $23.26 per acre as compared with $17.31 previous to the improvement. In 1913, four transfer of farm land were on the basis of $20.11 per acre, whereas the properties were listed in 1910 at only $13.89 per acre. It appears that 1,451 acres sold in 1914 increased in value $28,500, or 80 per cent, or from $24.46 to $44.10 per acre.

In Dinwiddie county, Va., the actual price of 43 farms sold or offered for sale from 1909 to 1914 ranged in price from $8.38 to $43.74 per acre before the roads were built, and from $24.70 to $72.60 per acre after the roads were improved.

In Lee county, Va., a study of eight tracts along the roads before and after improvement indicated that these properties increased about 23 per cent, or about 70 per cent.

In Wise county, Va., a study of eight representative farms located on roads showed that they increased in value from an average of $49.06 per acre before improvement to $79.44 after the roads were improved. There were increases in valuation in other sections of from $60 to $90, or even $100 per acre.

In Franklin County, N. Y., the figures seem to indicate that the change from earth, sandy, and loam roads to bituminous macadam was followed by increases averaging $12.50 per acre, or about 30.7 per cent.

In Dallas County, Ala., careful investigation seemed to indicate that road improvement has added at least $5 to each acre of land within a half mile of improved roads. Tracts sold at from $8 to $10 per acre were sold again after road improvement at from $20 to $25 per acre.

In Lauderdale County, Miss., the total assessed valuation of real property outside of the city was $2,757,546. This increased in 1914 after the road improvement to $3,183,809, or 15.4 per cent. Local real estate men place the increase in land values on account of improved roads at from 25 to 50 per cent.

In Manatee County, Fla., careful study of sales and real estate records indicated that the improvement of roads has added from 15 to 100 per cent, or at least $15 per acre to the selling price of all lands within one-half mile of improved roads. This would give a total of $611,000, or more than twice the value of the bonds issued.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

1787—Girl's Dress. With Styles of Severe.

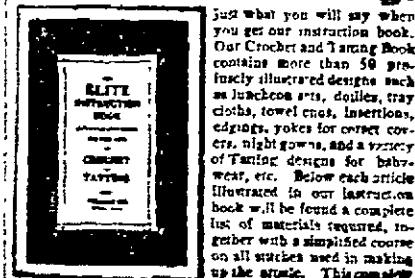

Figured chaille was used for a style. It is also nice for crepe, embroidered or plain batiste, organdie and lawn. The bertha may be omitted. The waist may be finished in high or low neck outline. The sleeve has a deep cuff, in wrist length finish, and in puff style it has a wide heading that forms a ruffle. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes, 6, 8, 10 and 12 years. It requires 3½ yards of 44 inch material for an 8 year size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Rondout, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Dr. Swinburne of Albany

Makes Wonderful Cure of Diabetes and Dropsy Case in Poughkeepsie

A most remarkable cure by the Albany specialist is the case of Mrs. A. McIntyre of 53 Catherine street, Poughkeepsie, N. Y. This patient has been suffering for a long time with diabetes and heart weakness and she had taken the treatment of some of the most prominent doctors in Poughkeepsie without obtaining any relief whatever; in fact, her trouble became more severe from day to day until dropsy developed and she could scarcely get her breath at all. Hearing of Dr. Swinburne and his wonderful cures of patients, even when all ordinary treatment had failed, she consulted his noted specialist in July, 1914, and began the treatment at once. The case had become so severe that it required a long course of treatment before the disease could be controlled, but now Mrs. McIntyre is pleased to state to the public that she has obtained complete relief; the terrible shortness of breath and dropsy is all gone, and she feels like a new woman. She is more than grateful to Dr. Swinburne for giving her a new lease of life and advises any one suffering from any such troubles to consult Dr. Swinburne without delay.

No matter how much you are suffering or how severe your trouble may be, you have not half tried to get well unless you have given this specialist a trial. It will cost nothing to see the doctor and talk over your trouble, and if you desire to take treatment the charges will be reasonable.

The doctor has permanent offices at 349 Broadway, Kingston, where patients can secure consultation on Fridays from 9 to 12 a. m., and 1 to 3:30 p. m. Also Thursday evenings, 6:30 to 8 p. m.

The Eternal Feminine.

"Did you have a pleasant afternoon dear?" asked the man.

"No," snapped the wife; "I had a perfectly beastly afternoon."

"Why, I thought you were going down to buy a new hat?"

"I was, and I did."

"Then why didn't you have a good time? I thought—"

"Yes, you thought. Well, I'll tell you I intended to have a lovely time buying that hat, but they had just what I wanted at the first store I went to, so I had to buy it. And there wasn't anything to do for the rest of the day, so I couldn't enjoy myself one bit."—Brooklyn Eagle.

Oldest Fort In New World.

It is a fascinating experience to visit Santo Domingo and wander amid the ruins of the ancient city—from the foundations of Homenaje, the oldest in the new world, to the first stone church built on this side of the Atlantic, and to the tomb of the great discoverer. Nowhere else in this hemisphere are there scenes fraught with more historical significance to Americans than here where Columbus laid his hand of triumph and his hour of sorrow, and where, when he had embarked upon the great voyage from which he would never return to endure the flicker favor of petty princes, his ashes finally found repose.—National Geographic Magazine.

Flopping to Earth.

A Glenwood avenue man who raises chickens was entertaining a friend. "You have a nice little place here," "Yes, a nice garden." "A nice garden?" "Yes." "And some fine chickens." "Especially the chickens." "You like them best?" "Yes, indeed. I tell you it is fine to take a basket every morning and go out after eggs." The Glenwood avenue man's little girl, who had been listening, took the wind out of her father's sails with the observation: "Yes, sir, and sometimes we get some too."—Oakland (Cal.) Tribune.

Stop!, Look!, Listen!,
It can't be there's
Anybody who don't Know it now.
After all the
Papers have said
And Sunday all
The clergy in the
City were asked
To notice it
From pulpits. Then
Too it's being
Talked at the teas,
The dances, the Movies and by
Crowds even when
There are only two,
So you would Think that the
$35,000 campaign
For the Sanitarium
Was well
Introduced.
You know the
Debut of a thing
Wants to be right
Or society don't
Tumble for it.
Now then to get
Down to brass tacks
Did you know
What a really
Cosmopolitan work
The Sanitarium is Doing?
Of course you have
To be sick to get
In, but that's all.
You don't have to
Be of this faith, or
That faith, or
Have a pedigree,
Or a bank account,
Or a pull.
The Sanitarium
Doors swing wide to
Everybody if there's
Room to squeeze
'Em in anywhere.
Just now they are
Turning folks
Away for lack of Room.
Say, 62 per cent of
All the patients
Treated during the
Last three years
Were Protestants.
If somebody
Tries to spring some
Sectarian wisdom
About the institution
Tell 'em about the Belief of the Majority of patients.
Why do they go
There? well,
They may not drink
Postum but
There's a Reason.

SUPERVISORS HOLD BUSY SESSION

The board of supervisors held a long and busy session Monday night.

The committee on equalization reported a tabulated statement of mathematical calculations based on the ratios heretofore adopted, which table so far as it shows the amount deducted from or added to the assessed valuation for the purpose of apportionment of taxes is published elsewhere in The Freeman. The report was adopted.

Other Committee Reports

The committee on apportionment of grand jurors submitted a report which is printed elsewhere in The Freeman. The report was adopted.

The committee on town and county accounts submitted a report relative to the amount necessary to be raised for maintenance of state and county highways under the highway law, another report relative to bills for fighting forest fires, and a third report relative to unpaid and rejected taxes, lunacy charges payable by towns to the county and amounts by which the county treasury is to be reimbursed for monies advanced for construction of state and county highways. All the reports were placed on file. These reports appear elsewhere in The Freeman.

With reference to the unpaid and rejected taxes, County Attorney Eckert stated that practically all the unexpended monies in the hands of the county treasurer were exhausted, and towns having unpaid and rejected taxes ought to raise all they could this year to supply the whole deficiency. Practically the whole amount of unpaid taxes in Gardiner, Marlborough and Shawangunk was due to the certification proceedings with New York city but some of the monies in these towns, and all of the amounts owed by the other towns, was due to imperfect descriptions being furnished which caused the taxes to be charged back on the towns.

Superintendent of Poor's Report

The annual report of Superintendent of the Poor Cornelius L. Van Ouden, a summary of which is published elsewhere in The Freeman, was read and referred to the committee on superintendent of the poor's accounts.

Report on Highway and Bridge Monies

The committee on town expenses submitted a report and resolution for the amount of money to be raised on the various towns for highway maintenance, bridge maintenance and repairs, machinery for the town and miscellaneous road expenses as estimated by town superintendents and town boards, totalling $85,717, which went over under the rule. The amounts of these items appear elsewhere in The Freeman.

For County-line Bridges

Supervisor McElhone introduced a resolution to raise $5.92 on the county to pay the county's proportion of the cost of repairs to two county-line bridges in the town of Shawangunk, $1.18 being for the Mecke & Rinsland bridge, between the town of Shawangunk and the town of Mamakating, Sullivan county and $4.74 being for the Dickinson & Bruza bridge, between the town of Shawangunk and the town of Crawford Orange county. The resolution was referred to the committee on highway accounts.

For Bridges in Needy Towns

Resolutions by Supervisors Dulan and Gray to raise $500 each on the county for repairs of bridges in their respective towns, Denning and Hardenbergh were referred to the committee on highway accounts.

Other Resolutions Introduced

The following resolutions were introduced and went over under the rule:

By Supervisor Schoonmaker, to adopt the report of the committee on town and county accounts providing for funds for highway maintenance.

By Supervisor Lounsbury, to adopt the report of the committee on town and county accounts providing for payment of bills for fighting forest fires.

By Supervisor Coons, to adopt the report of the committee on town and county accounts providing for appropriations for cost of constructing state and county highways, to reimburse the county for monies expended on behalf of towns for examinations in lunacy, and to raise $15,240.80 on the county to pay the county's proportion of the cost of construction of state and county highways.

By Supervisor Schantz, to raise $1,128.63 on the town of Lloyd to reimburse the county for expenditures by the county on behalf of that town on account of the town's proportion of the cost of constructing road No. 254.

By Supervisor Lyons, to raise $1,023.91 on the town of Gardiner to pay two certificates and interest.

By Supervisor Lyons, to raise $742.32 on the town of Gardiner to pay two certificates and interest.

By Supervisor Schantz, to raise $520 on the town of Lloyd to pay note and interest.

By Supervisor Schantz, to raise $1,286.17 on the town of Lloyd to pay note and interest issued on account of the polio epidemic.

By Supervisor Brink, to raise $235.99 on the town of Lister to pay deficiency in the county treasury caused by unpaid and rejected taxes of that town.

By Supervisor Roosa, to raise $1,324.25 on the town of Marlborough to pay deficiency in the county treasury caused by unpaid and rejected taxes of that town.

Resolutions Called Up

The following resolutions heretofore introduced were called up and adopted:

By Supervisor Lounsbury, to raise $100 on the town of Rochester for support of poor.

By Supervisor Coons, to raise $245 on the town of Shandaken to pay interest on bond held by the Kingston Savings Bank, also to raise $2,122.50 to pay interest on bonds held by the Rondout Savings Bank.

By Supervisor Catbwaud, to raise $1,073.17 on the town of Wawarsing to pay highway and bridge bonds and interest held by the Home National Bank of Ellenville, also to raise $3,405 to pay bridge bonds and interest.

By Supervisor Sagendorf, to raise $1,246.50 on the town of Woodstock to pay note and interest.

By Supervisor Lyons, to raise $100 on the Gardiner fire district for fire purposes.

On motion of Supervisor Rifenburg the board adjourned until 7.30 o'clock this evening.

VILHJALMUR STEFANSSON
WILL SEARCH FOR LAND SEEN
BY PEARLY

(Vilhjalmur Stefansson.)

New York, Nov. 28.—Vilhjalmur Stefansson, who for three years has been in the far North at the head of the Canadian Arctic Expedition, plans to search for Crocker land, to set at rest doubts which have been raised as to its existence. Announcement to that effect was made by Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary, who discovered Crocker Land. Admiral Peary received a letter from Stefansson which had been on its way from the Arctic since December, 1915.

Both Legs Guilty

Charles had formed the habit of running off to the neighbors and even to the nearby stores. As a punishment for this his mother one day tied him to the library table, tying one end of the rope to his leg, the other to the table. Watching the proceeding with interest, he remarked: "The nigger leg, too, mamma, they both runned away."

ROADS, LUNATICS AND BACK TAXES

Unpaid and rejected taxes due to the county treasury from various towns, the indebtedness of towns to the county for examinations in lunacy and expenditures by the county on behalf of the county and towns for state and county highway construction formed the subjects of a report submitted to the board of supervisors at Monday night's session by the committee on town and county accounts. The committee reported the following amounts shown by the accounts of the county treasurer due to the county from the towns on account of unpaid and rejected taxes:

Denning	$ 40.83
Esopus	1,752.29
Gardiner	11,548.79
Hardenbergh	847.80
Hurley	115.49
Kingston	448.31
Marbletown	3,972.75
Marlborough	41.48
New Paltz	46.06
Plattekill	39.46
Rosendale	227.39
Saugerties	72.29
Shandaken	762.42
Shawangunk	18,599.84
Lister	225.99
Wawarsing	2,058.29

For Examinations in Lunacy

The committee also reported that the county treasurer has paid out on behalf of the towns and the county the following amounts for examinations in lunacy:

County of Lister	$100
Gardiner	10
Kingston	20
Lloyd	40
Marbletown	30
Marlborough	10
New Paltz	20
Plattekill	20
Rochester	40
Rosendale	40
Saugerties	112
Shandaken	10
Shawangunk	40
Lister	40

The committee recommended that the amounts be levied on the towns to reimburse the county treasurer on account of such payments.

State and County Road Construction Cost

The committee also reported that the county treasurer has paid out in behalf of the county and the towns the sum of $21,178.83 for the cost of construction of the state and county highways, as follows:

Road 354, Highland Landing-highland	$3,760.12
Road 1,136, Cold Brook-Beechford	$1,190.18
Road 602, Napanoch-Monteale	$15,700.
Road 1,373, Hurley-Kingston	$228.53

Which amount should be apportioned as follows: On the county, $1,190.18; on the towns, as follows:

For Road 1,136	$1,190.18
For Road 602	$16,900
For Road 1,373	$228.53
On Lloyd, for Road 354	$1,123.03
On Wawarsing, for Road 602	$4,710.

The committee recommended that $15,340.80 be raised on the county and that the towns make proper provision for reimbursing the county, as indicated above. The report was placed on file.

Cost of Fighting Forest Fires

The same committee reported the amounts necessary to be raised for expenses in fighting forest fires, as reported by the state conservation commission, as follows:

Denning	$4.85
Gardiner	$6.71
Rochester	$7.14
Shandaken	$6.94
Wawarsing	$44.47
Woodstock	$1.19

The report was placed on file.

Here is a New Shaving Harness

Another device has been invented to reduce a man's misery as he writhes under the razor. This time it is a shaving harness. The mirror, shaving brush and shaving cap are all attached to the harness in positions convenient to the hand. Armed with this equipment a three days' growth of beard can be attacked with absolute certainty that the task will be completed without the usual convulsions of the head and neck.

Well Hidden.
James, three, had a couple of pennies and forgot where he put them. He asked his mother if she knew where they were. She said: "I don't know, James, where did you put them?" He said: "I don't know, mamma, but it will be a good place, anyway; nobody will find them."

Rock Rents.
A "rock rent" is a "rent that is equivalent to the full net annual value of the real property out of which it issues, or approximately so." By statute in England today rock rent is defined as "not less than two-thirds of the full net annual value of the lands out of which it arises."

MATTERS BEFORE THE SUGROGATE

The will of Fred J. Huhn of Ellenville, formerly of Grahamsville, Sullivan county, was admitted to probate by Surrogate Gill in the surrogate's court today. To his wife, Minnie Huhn, the testator gives his real estate, personal property, live stock, etc., used as part of the stock and equipment of his home and farm at Grahamsville. The balance of the estate is given to his executors and trustees for the benefit of his wife until her death or remarriage, and on the termination of the trust he gives the remainder equally to his sister, Emma Huhn, and brothers, Emil L. Huhn and Adolph Huhn. In the event of their death, to his nieces, Edith L. Huhn and Adele F. Huhn. Emil L. Huhn of Brooklyn and Bruce Gillett of Grahamsville are appointed executors and trustees. The will was executed February 5, 1915, and witnessed by William J. Smith, Charlotte Moss and Henry D. Barmore, all of Brooklyn. The value of the estate is $7,500 personal property. Henry D. Barmore of Brooklyn appeared for the executors.

By La Racontense.

Long straight lines, disfiguring the fact that there is ample fullness, seems to hold full sway. This splendid suit in pale grey broadcloth is developed on long straight lines and trimmed with seal fur. The unusual cut of the coat, which forms a pocket and later runs into a panel in the back, is especially interesting. The fullness in front is held in place by a narrow belt of self-material. Smart button boots and a huge velvet hat lend an added amount of dressiness to the outfit.

KERHONKSON.

Kerhonkson, Nov. 27.—Mrs. Walter White entertained friends from Allgerville Thursday.

Dr. John A. Decker is making vast improvements to the interior of his house, corner Broadway and Main street, and has installed a gasoline engine in his garage, and has added several new radiators and extended the heating system to every room in the house. The doctor is an up to date gentleman and has his house immaculate and in first class order. A great deal of honor is due to his grandson as when he arrived a great many changes for the better presented themselves.

Where Blacking Gets Odor.

Shoeblacking, says the Scientific American, owes its peculiar aromatic odor, faintly suggestive of the deep woods, where spruce and hemlock needles pad the ground, to a oil of which is manufactured from this same kind of needles. The greater part of this oil is distilled in New England during the winter.

Community Responsibility.

Generally speaking a community is held responsible for the property of its citizens, and in case of the demand is not unreasonable, he sued for damages in case of loss. Some such suits have been brought and some of them have been won by the plaintiffs. Exception is made of loss due to war or insurrection.

STATE FEDERATION WORK REVIEWED

Kingston Federation of Women's Clubs Hears Reports of Recent Convention of the State Federation Held in Rochester.

Monday evening a special meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs was held at the Kingston City Library to hear from those who attended the convention at Rochester of the State Federation, what the women of New York state are doing for the various communities in which they live or for humanity at large. The reports were listened to with keenest interest because they told of so much actual accomplishment.

Mrs. Hyman Roosa gave the first report, describing the opening of the convention, elegance of the surroundings where the hundreds of women were convened, and the addresses of greeting. Mrs. Roosa called particular attention to the fact that all of the convention speakers were experts on the subject on which they spoke, and not merely agitators or hobby riders. Flashing of humor enlivened the report which was heartily appreciated.

Mrs. Reed, vice president, then took the chair, while Mrs. Moulton, president of the local Federation, gave one of the most concise yet comprehensive, and altogether interesting accounts ever brought back from any convention. Regret was voiced by all present that every woman in the Kingston Federation could not have heard the report, which was in part as follows:

"Woman has happily advanced much since the first meeting of the State Federation, 22 years ago. The subjects now considered are more practical and more valuable. Taking at random from the program, these are a few of the subjects that claimed the attention of this convention:

Water and waterways.

Americanization of our foreign born.

Prison reform.

Aspects of the criminal law affecting women.

Housing our women workers.

Labor laws.

Women in medicine and other professions.

The high cost of living.

The silent drama.

Home economics.

State libraries.

Preparedness.

It was shown that all of these—and many others—were topics that women were vitally interested in.

In one very particular way the years of meeting show great results.

There is hardly a woman in attendance who cannot spring to her feet and make a motion, or cannot join in a discussion without previous preparation, or announce her subject and stick to it."

Mrs. Moulton told of the constructive work of the Consumers' League in which especial attention had been devoted to the matter of long hours of restaurant girls. Over a thousand restaurants had been visited in New York city and up state, and conditions were similar in all. It was recommended that the working hours of girls in restaurants be limited as are the working hours of other working women, to 54 a week; time off for meals and one day rest in seven.

Baroness Von Klenner of New York city, president of the National Opera Club of America, and vice-president of the New York Women's Press, told of the work of the Opera Club in trying to have better music for more people, taking music out of the entertainment class and putting it into the necessity class.

One of the principal addresses was that of Dr. John H. Finley, president of the University of the State of New York, and commissioner of education, whose topic was "The True Preparedness." Dr. Finley considered the work of the Federation of Women's Clubs as a splendid example of the preparedness for which he was pleading.

Two sides of the criminal problem were presented ably: Dr. Charles Nammora, medical superintendent of Danmora State Hospital, speaking on "The Mind of the Criminal;" and Miss Anna Moscovitz, a member of the New York bar and chairman of the Woman's Night Court Committee, who spoke on "Aspects of the Criminal Law Affecting Women."

The address on the "Militia of Mercy," delivered by Mrs. John Hays Hammond, told of sending comfort to men at the border and helping their families left behind, and of the present work to assist in the after care of infantile paralysis victims throughout the state. While inspiring it was also touching and appealing.

Another exceedingly able and illuminating address was delivered on "Pan-Americanism and what it means to the women of New York State," delivered by John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American Union. In addition to a plea for greater enlightenment on the part of the people of North America regarding their neighbors of South America, Mr. Barrett gave a vivid and remarkable account of five days spent by him in the foremost trenches of the French and English battle fronts, in order that he might gain first hand knowledge of actual conditions in the great war. Woman's position in the world is bound to be revolutionized as the outcome of the war, prophesied Mr. Barrett.

Mrs. Moulton brought her exceedingly interesting report to a close, with the account of Mr. Barrett's address, and it was not only heartily applauded but Mrs. Moulton was given a hearty vote of thanks for the report.

It was expected that Dr. Mary Gage-Day who had charge of a conference on "The Question of the Hour" at the convention, would tell of the conference, but she was unable to be present. In the absence of Mrs. Fessenden, Mrs. Reed read the report of the resolutions committee, in which the work of the convention, looking toward the future, was actually summed up, a most creditable Malabar's Lemon Grass. The hill-sides of the Malabar coast of India are the scene of great commercial activity once a year, when the lemon grass harvest is under way. Oil extracted from the grass is employed in the manufacture of artificial perfumes. The hill-sides are burned over to destroy the old and useless grass. Six months later the fresh crop is ready to be cut, and at once the countryside is dotted with furnaces and stills.

Life's Three Questions. The three great questions of life are: "Is it right or wrong? Is it true or false? Is it beautiful or ugly?" These our education should help us to answer, and inasmuch as it falls it will lack in reaching a proper physical or moral standard.

Natural Result. She—What! He a first married a girl? How can that be? He—Why, it's simple enough. They set out to see which could beat the other flirting and it resulted in a tie.—Exchange.

BIG LINES OF CHOICE POULTRY IN Lay's Thanksgiving Sale

Right now mother is planning that Thanksgiving dinner, and in doing so she is thinking of her family's happiness. You are thankful to have such a good mother—thankful for all she does for you—and she is the mother we would like to have come and see our splendid supply of Thanksgiving poultry for our sale Wednesday and Saturday. Here are the fattest, plumpest Turkeys, Geese, Ducks and Chickens you have seen this year or at any other time. Most of the birds were brought in Dutchess county and dressed by it. Nowhere in the state—at the most exclusive market—will you find finer poultry or more moderate prices than ours. No matter how great the demand, we can supply it with the cream of this year's poultry stock.

PAY EIGHT CENTS EACH FOR C. OF C.

Kingston's Outlay of the Smallest Compared to Record in Other Cities—It Pays to Advertise is the Secret of Success in Everything.

Kingston's present outlay for Chamber of Commerce work averages about eight cents per capita per year. This sum must pay the secretary, pay for printing, postage and other sundries for keeping the organization together, and then must be stretched out to advertise the city, solicit new industries, extend the trade area, work for public improvements and create civic patriotism.

As a business proposition, the Chamber of Commerce would be considered insolvent. It has not sufficient operating capital to carry out an active program for a greater period than sixty days out of every year. The present income is consumed entirely by overhead—and, as a business proposition, it would not last a week before going into bankruptcy.

On the other hand, how much are other cities spending for Chamber of Commerce work? Utica, N. Y., has been spending 55c per capita for the past three years—ten times more than Kingston is spending. Ithaca is spending 75c per capita. Lockport 70c and Jamestown 64c. Toledo, O., spends 57c per capita and Fredericksburg, Va., while 50 per cent of the population is colored, is spending $1.32 per capita.

A city that spends less than 50c per capita per year for Chamber of Commerce work is practicing a short-sighted policy. Cities, like businesses, require advertisement, improvement, organization and enthusiasm. Successful business men find that it pays to advertise; that it pays to give service to the public; that it pays to keep a neat, well-ordered store; and that the most efficient employees are those who are full of hope, enthusiasm and determination to keep pace with competition. Cities, no less, must advertise, must maintain a clean, orderly house, and provide for the welfare and inspiration of its citizens.

"A good name is more to be desired than gold," says the ancient sage, and it is the business of the Chamber of Commerce to see that the city has a good name, and that its citizens are enthusiastic and cooperative for the essentials of progress.

Eight cents per capita per year for the Kingston Chamber of Commerce is a starvation wage. It is not enough to buy bread alone, say nothing of providing a full meal for the body politic. This wage—eight cents a day—must, and will be raised before Christmas to at least 50c per day, and possibly to 75c. It would be a mighty fine thing if Kingston would pull herself together and take the state's record Chamber of Commerce wage from Utica by providing the new Chamber with 50c per day per capita.

The laborer is worthy of his hire. Give the Kingston Chamber a living wage and you will see a demonstration of efficiency in community work that will be the talk of the country.

Reconciliation.

In most families and among friends differences sometimes arise that are decidedly unpleasant. In nearly all cases these differences spring from misunderstandings. A time comes when explanations, apologies and reasons are in order, and a reconciliation takes place. This is a thing much to be desired, and when it comes wash the slate clean. Leave no fragments, no leftovers, to be brought up at another time. Wash the slate clean as you would wipe out a faulty example. Cleanse the heart of the last drop of bitterness or resentment. Let love and good will prevail. A genial spirit brings more real happiness than a manner reserved as to raise doubt of the pleasure of meeting. Doubt that reconciliation was mutual. So forgive as to forget. It has been done and can be done. Such forgiveness wins good will and cement friendships that fill life with joy. Hold yourself ready to "wash the slate clean."—Milwaukee Journal.

Capitals We Have Had.

It is asserted sometimes that the United States has had five capitals, but the statement is not correct. The United States has had but three capitals—New York, Philadelphia and Washington. In the period preceding the adoption of the constitution no place was legally constituted a capital. In a loose and unofficial sense it is possible to describe as a capital any city which was the seat of government. Taking the sessions of the Continental congress as establishing a seat of government in the Revolution and the confederation, the following cities may loosely rank as capitals: Philadelphia, Baltimore, Lancaster, York, Princeton, Annapolis, Trenton and New York. The articles of confederation were passed by congress in Philadelphia, and the federal convention charged to prepare a constitution convened at the same place.

Finest Home Thanksgiving Poultry AT WASHINGTON MARKET

As in previous years we have contracted with the best poultry raisers in Ulster County for a large shipment of poultry—THE BEST TO BE HAD. This does not mean high prices, but the best quality at the price you pay elsewhere for much inferior grades of poultry.

Our turkeys are pretty as pictures—almost too nice looking to carve. And we have the finest home dressed roasting chickens in town—young, tender and delicious, well fattened and carefully kept. We have Meats and Poultry as you like them. If the meat is not tender, if the fowl is not tasty, the Thanksgiving dinner is spoiled. Every housewife knows how annoying this is. If you buy here, count on the finest qualities in Kingston and lowest consistent prices and you'll not be disappointed.

Was Well Trained.

Many a man who permits himself to be led forth to musical entertainments does not care for will appreciate the following: "What made you start clapping your hands when that woman stepped on your foot in the tramcar?" "I was doing," answered Mr. Curran. "I thought mother and the girls were having a musicale at home, and one of them was signaling that it was time to applaud."

Retrospection.

"Your nephew, the horse doctor, who once distinguished himself by eloping with the two-headed girl at the fair, is a candidate for the legislature, is he not?" "Oh, yes," replied the venerable Missourian. "When a feller once gets well started down the hill he just natcherly goes from bad to worse, and there ain't no stopping him."—Kansas City Star.

Slightly Mixed.

There is a good anecdote of an Irishman giving the password at the battle of Fontenoy, at the time the great Saxe was marshaled. "The password is Saxe," now, don't forget it," said the colonel. "Saxe! faith, I won't. Wasn't my father a miller?" "Who goes there?" cried the sentry, after he had arrived at the pass. The Irishman looked as confidential as possible and whispered in a sort of howl: "Bags, yer honor."

Substitute for Ferns.

Ferns do not survive well in the furnace heat of a house. Fill the fern dish with rich earth and plant the seed of grapefruit. Put them in thickly and cover a half inch deep. Keep well watered. In about two weeks you'll have a beautiful green center dish which, besides adding a touch of refreshing color to the table, lasts all winter with little care.—New York Evening Sun.

Opera Dating From 1500.

"Eurydice" was the first Italian opera ever performed in public, and the work excited an extraordinary amount of attention. The score was first published in Florence in 1600 and was dedicated to Marie de Medici, and it was printed in 1603 in Venice, a copy of the latter being well preserved in the library of the British museum.

Change of Scene After Grief.

Many women find in change of scene a most wise course to follow when some trouble comes to them. The old associations but serve to renew their grief, whereas being in a strange place among strangers they seem to find new strength. New interests make claims upon them, and little by little they become resigned to the inevitable.

ODDS AND ENDS.

The monthly meeting of St. Peter's Sick and Aid Society will be held this evening at the school hall at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Thomas Daley, the well known caterer, has charge of the supper for the Benedictine campaign workers, at the K. of C. Home.

The factory of the E. Mullen Tobacco Company on North Front street will be closed Wednesday morning out of the respect to the memory of the late John J. Campbell.

Barmann's brewery will be closed all day Thursday, so that the army of workmen employed there may fittingly celebrate Thanksgiving Day. All orders for Thanksgiving must therefore, be sent in not later than Wednesday.

LOCAL DEATH RECORD.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

The funeral of the late John J. Campbell will take place at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning from his residence, No. 92 St. James street, and at ten o'clock from St. Joseph's Church, where a solemn high mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of his soul.

Mrs. Maurice Burger of No. 3 Clinton avenue received word today of the sudden death of her brother, Herman Secor, at the Marine Hospital on Staten Island. Mr. Secor is a former resident of Port Jervis and had a host of friends. He was son of the late James A. and Jane W. Secor of Port Jervis and is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Burger and Anna, wife of John Beaver of Esopus, and two brothers, James B. Secor of Schenectady and Carey Secor of Port Jervis. The body will be brought to this city and the funeral will be held from the residence of Mrs. Burger on Clinton avenue on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Leibhardt, Nov. 23.—Mrs. John Hornbeck died at her home Saturday, November 25, in her 50th year. Mrs. Hornbeck had resided all her life in this place and was a kind friend and neighbor, and was beloved by all who knew her. She had been in poor health for the past two years. She is survived by an invalid husband, three sons, Asa, Neil and Russell, and seven daughters, the Misses Edna, Florence, Ethel, Louella, Helen, Erma and Mrs. Joseph Hinkley, all of this place. She is also survived by aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Stenard, of Amsterdam, and five brothers and four sisters, besides a large circle of friends, who express deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones. Funeral service will be at her late home Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock.

Jacob Van Gelder, one of the oldest residents of Saugerties and a member of a family well known in the Hudson Valley before the revolutionary war, died Monday evening at his home in Saugerties where for several years he had been incapacitated by the infirmities due to age. Mr. Van Gelder was born in Catskill, December 27, 1830, and came to Saugerties in 1854, as a teacher, afterwards devoting himself to farming and horticulture, becoming an authority on fruit growing. For more than 40 years Mr. Van Gelder had been a member of the American Pomological Society and in his own experimenting in this line added much to general information on pomology. For many years he was interested in banking and real estate in Saugerties, having been a director of the First National Bank and vice president and a trustee of the Saugerties Savings Bank. He is survived by two daughters.

Newburgh Football Players Hurt. Eight persons, five of them members of the Newburgh Academy football team, were injured on Saturday evening when, while they were returning from the game between Newburgh and Middletown, played in Middletown, the automobile in which they were riding struck at Montgomery. Volk Moore was apparently the most seriously hurt and has several fractured ribs. Others in the party who were injured were William Moore, Ellis Hargreaves, Clifford DuBois, Richard Brewster of Coldenham, Walter Allison, Peter McShane and William Stewart.

The Campaign. The Campaign is the great plain surrounding the city of Rome, rolling gently down, like a quiet sea, over the bones of dead cities from the mountains to the Mediterranean. It is a low, desert level tufted with rusty grass and halcyon by a mist of romance and malaria. It is one of the most historic and most unhealthful bits of country in the world. A slow, subtle beauty belongs to it, which has taken powerful hold of some and which others never feel.

Upon the arrival home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Glendenning Monday evening, they were tendered an old time skimmington, managed by Charles Snyder, the popular cashier of the Ulster County Bank. There were fully one hundred of the neighbors and friends of the Newburghs, came to make merry. Many friends of Ralph from the Y. M. C. A. where he is very popular, were present. Guns, cannon, bells, horns and everything that could produce a noise was brought into use. After the party was nearly exhausted by the continual racket, they were invited in where they were served with refreshments and all left, wishing the bride and groom, who are both very popular, a long and happy married life.

THE CAMEO REVIVAL

There was a time when every lady's jewel box contained a highly prized cameo set for use on dress occasions. The cameo is complete, and today the cameo is quite the "fashionable thing" again. Cameos, you know are carved by hand. These possess real character in cut and coloring.

CROSS COUNTRY ENTRIES ALL IN

Will Be Held Thanksgiving Day Morning Starting at Y. M. C. A.—Those Who Will Run—Basketball Notes.

Details for the big cross country run to be held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. on Thanksgiving Day morning have been completed, and the entries for the run are all in. "Walt" Wheeler, former captain of the high school football team will be the pacemaker. He will set the pace for the greater part of the distance to be covered and none of the runners will be allowed to pass him and sprint for home until he gives the word. The start will be made from the association building through Pine Grove avenue, to the cemetery, then cross country to Mary's avenue, to Orchard street, to Broadway, to O'Reilly to cemetery, to Pine Grove avenue and finish at the building. All boys must be at the building ready to start the race at 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

The checkers will be H. D. Every, Harry Fowler, George Wood and Clinton Carpenter. Physical Director Godfrey will be timekeeper and starter.

The school trophy will be awarded to the team having the most runners finish in the first ten places. Medals will be awarded the first six men to cross the finish line.

The entries and schools they represent follow:

School No. 6—Robert Dennis and S. Leverett.

St. Peter's School—W. Albright and Frank Koenig.

School No. 2—Tom Rowland, Eric Brown and Caris Messenger.

School No. 5—Charles Malloy and Grant Lyons.

St. Mary's School—Thomas McGraw.

School No. 8—K. LeFever, W. Mc Lane, Charles Vogel, R. Netherwood, E. Van Wageningen, 1. Christiana, N. Humphrey, H. Murdoch, L. Reubens, D. Sutton and F. Martin.

Basketball Notes.

The Grammar School Basketball League will open on Saturday at the Y. M. C. A. when the first three games will be played. The schedule follows:

St. Joseph's School vs. School No. 3.

School No. 5 vs. School No. 2.

St. Peter's School vs. St. Mary's School.

In the Interroom Basketball League School No. 6 and School No. 8 each have three teams entered. The league will start December 9.

In the Junior Basketball League four teams are entered and it is hoped that two more teams may be secured. Any teams wishing to enter should communicate with the Y. M. C. A. before the last of the week when the entry list will be closed. The teams already entered are the Emeralds, the Crescents, the Juniors, the Centrals and the Employed Boys.

AMERICAN ATHLETES WIN HONORS ABROAD

BRILLIANT PERFORMERS IN SWEDEN.

American athletes have again shown that they retain their place at the head of track and field sports by the brilliant performances of the chosen few who crossed to the Scandinavian countries at the invitation of Sweden. With only five men on the team, four of them selected officially and the other, Ward of Chicago, going because his fellow citizens thought he deserved the trip, the representatives of the United States have won nearly every event in which they have competed.

In the two days at Christiania the Americans were victorious in every event but one, and in that Ted Meredith was beaten only by a yard by J. Bolin, the Swedish champion, at 800 meters. The performances of the men at Stockholm were remarkable when it is taken into consideration that they had disembarked from the steamship only a day or two before their first meeting with the Scandinavian champions. In the stay of a week before the Stockholm and Christiania meetings the Americans had a chance to train, and the result was apparent, particularly in the cases of Meredith, Loomis and Ward. Loomis recovered his spring in the high jump and defeated Kullerstrand, the Swede, who had beaten him in the first meeting. Ward scored his first victory of the tour when he won the 200 meters on the opening day at Christiania and Meredith got close enough to Bolin at 800 meters to make matters uncomfortable for the man who had easily conquered him a week previous.

Bob Simpson, the University of Missouri hurdler, has been invincible in all the competitions over hurdles, and already has placed on the books a new world's mark for 110 meters. Besides showing his superiority in hurdling, Simpson has acquitted himself well on the flat, and the same may be said of Murray, who has beaten the Scandinavians with great regularity in both hurdle races and at sprinting distances. Loomis has been victorious in all the short-distance races, and now that he has evened up with Kullerstrand in the high jump, has established his supremacy in that department of sport.

The Scandinavians were delighted with the work and sportsmanship of the Americans and promise to send a representative lot of athletes to the United States next year to compete in various tournaments.

WOMEN SELECT GOLF DATES

First Time a History of United States Golf Association Fair Sex Have Had Privilege.

A committee of women will select the course and dates for their next national golf tournament. An announcement at headquarters of the United States Golf association says the committee has been asked to choose three clubs and the date which they consider best for the women golfers, so that their selection can be voted upon, which is to be held in New York next January.

This is said to be the first time in the history of the organization that the women have been permitted to select the course and the dates.

NOTES of SPORTIDOM

No matter who plays, in most of the football games the ticket scalpers are winners.

All of the clubs in the Western league are said to have made money this year, except seven.

According to latest reports, the Dodgers haven't cracked under the strain of having so much money.

Gloomy Gus says: The man who invented basketball was in all other respects a respectable and decent citizen.

Minneapolis boxing promoter would give bonuses to fighters scoring knock-outs. He automatically bars Freddie Welsh.

The McGraw who plays tackle for Princeton is not John McGraw of Giant fame. If he were he would be a great kicker.

Miller Huggins has been given permission to trade any player on his team. He might be able to get a few broken bats in exchange.

In the good old days of boxing a champion often fought on a "winner take all" basis. Nowadays all a champion wants is whether he wins or loses is everything.

A future candidate recently placed in Tommy Murphy's stable at Poughkeepsie is a veering filly by "Maiden", 2-07, out of Lady Jay, 2-18, by Jay McGregor, 2-074.

A revised version of the sale of the Red Sox shows the club went for $772,000 instead of $875,000. Yet Charley Ebbetts had nerve enough to ask a million and a half for the Dodgers.

All of the big league parks now seem comparatively quiet and deserted and melancholy, except Shibe park, Philadelphia, where the attendance continues about the same as it was in September.

John L. Collier is coaching Cornell university oarsmen, assisted by former Coach Charles Courtney, in an advisory capacity. The early workouts attracted 150 candidates for the varsity and freshmen eights.

GOOD SWEATERS FOR EVERYBODY

Exceptional Values Increasing Sales

Never was the advice to buy early, more opportune than at this season, when prices are soaring high every week.

THE RIGHT MERCHANDISE AT THE RIGHT PRICE

Anticipating your needs many months ago, we can still offer plenty of merchandise at the good old prices. In many cases it will be impossible to replace our stock for this season.

Winter Coats, Suits and Furs

Large assortments, smart styles, and best of values are combined to make this the biggest and best winter garment season in our business history.

Ladies' Winter Coats

New arrivals daily, styles for all occasions; warm, comfortable coats for motoring or driving. In plain cloth or gray mixture, for $12.50, $15.00 and $18.00. Fine dress coats with plain or trimmed collar and cuffs, $18.00, $20.00, $22.00, $25.00 and $30.00. Owing to the advanced cost of material we would advise our customers to buy their winter coats early.

Ladies' Winter Suits

At prices that satisfy the most prudent buyers. Styles that are sure to please, and materials that are guaranteed to give satisfactory service. We would call your especial attention to these suits at $18.00, $20.00, $22.00 and $25.00.

Furs Are Popular

Time to think about your winter furs; choice sets and separate muffs are always selected early in the season. We'll gladly put them aside until you need them. Satisfaction guaranteed on every purchase.

Good Winter Underwear

By placing your orders early in the season we are able to offer our large stock of winter underwear for men, women and children at prices that cannot be duplicated when our present stock is exhausted.

Men's woolen 97c, $1.35, $1.50 and $1.65. Ladies' wool at 97c and $1.50. Men's union suits at 97c, $1.47 and $1.97. Ladies' union suits at 97c and $1.97.

WE WANT

All those interested in monuments to visit our works this week. We are finishing up some unusually fine stones. An inspection will not only give you some ideas in design but convince you that our workmen are past masters in the art of stone cutting. Designs and estimates cheerfully submitted on special work, including vaults and mausoleums.

Kingstonian Boilers

Has Any One Explained This Coal-Saving Point to You?

When you want to boil water quickly to poach an egg, you don't put the water in a deep, narrow-bottomed kettle. You get a big, broad-bottomed pan and put a little water in it and it boils almost while you are cracking the egg.

The Kingstonian Boiler acts just like that broad-bottomed pan does. That's one reason why it heats quickly and with less coal than other boilers.
